Because of the sectionalism of Don Miller and Jack Chalker and others of the Baltimore area the proposed IES did not get off the ground. We wonder if it had if they would have helped to prevent the following.???

The recent Bernie Kling like actions of one Jack Chalker in his mis "Quote" type Boardman like zine called Barad-Dur!

These crazy and unfair ONE WEEK deadlines that Charles Turner set up in Armageddonia. (By which he still used surface mail! Ugh!)

This by the way was the old Fiddly game and was one of many that requested money for postal Diplomacy games and failed to produce!

To point out Don Miller as an example. How many times has he collected money for certain publications and different postal diplomacy game variations and then push back the publication of same with no refund to subscribers and pushed back moves of games to a month or more between moves? Double Ugh!-Solution: More zines like Stab, Lonely Mountain, & Erodingnag. PLEASE!
